Gospel

Luke 12:32-48

EXPLORING THE WORD

The longer version of today's gospel opens with a sublime promise: 'There is no need to be afraid, little flock, for it has pleased your Father to give you the kingdom.' There is such intimacy in these words, not only in the relationship of Jesus to his 'little flock' but in the promise of the kingdom given by the Father. This intimate relationship and promise do not take away our responsibility, however. On the contrary! Our response to this promise—whether we put our faith in it or whether we doubt it—will determine our response to the demands that Jesus makes of us: detachment from possessions, readiness for the Lord when he comes, and integrity of life. To us has been given a great deal, and a great deal will be demanded in return. We must be attentive to the requirements of the Master.
