EXPLORING THE WORD

Today's Gospel reminds us that the Eucharist is a memorial of Christ's sacrifice on the cross. We believe that Jesus is truly present to us in the elements of bread and wine. When we celebrate this sacrament, we prepare for the Kingdom of God. As the Second Vatican Council taught us, is the source and summit of the Christian life. It begins with the instructions that Jesus gave to his disciples to prepare their Passover celebration. Then gives an account of the Last Supper. In the description of the Passover meal found in today's Gospel, Mark omits many elements of the Jewish Passover meal. He describes only those elements he believes to be most essential to the Christian Eucharist: Jesus took bread, blessed the bread, broke the bread, and shared it with his disciples. Similar words and actions follow as Jesus shares the chalice with his disciples. This bread now shared is Jesus' own body. Those who drink from the chalice are invited to share in a new covenant which will be sealed by Jesus' own blood.
